Note: the thickness of the card that is used to make the house will affect the size of the walls.
The back wall decoration may be pasted directly onto the back wall.
The side walls, floor and roof can then be then fitted in place.
It is probably easier to make a neat job of any painting that is required by doing it first and then (if necessary) re-touching any glue marks, etc.